Help Shape a New Federal Anti-racism Strategy

Canadian Heritage (a department of the Government of Canada) is inviting Canadians to write about their personal views and lived experience related to racism and discrimination in order to develop a new federal anti-racism strategy. Plan to share your personal views and lived experience related to racism and discrimination with Heritage Canada by December 9. Find out how to participate.

Webinar: Exploring Theologies of Disabilities, November 13

In the Bible, when Jesus encountered a person with a disability, his response was often to heal them. But what does healing mean? What does cure mean? And how do people with disabilities understand those today? Join Tom Reynolds as he explores theologies of disabilities—including concepts such as healing and cure. November 13, 7:00 pm ET. This is part of the Disabilities and the Church webinar series. Register here.
